Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Bauernfreund et al (US 2,485,028). Regarding claims 1-21, see Figs. 1-3 and 6 where the structure is shown. The bottom is 28 and the hard bottom board is 10. Moving or removing the hard bottom board 10 enables the container to be collapsed. 42 is the handle on the at least one sidewall.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Johnson (US 4,756,416) is cited for teaching removable boards. Stone (US 6,203,198) and Derby et al (US 4,903,859) are both cited for teaching flexible walls with embedded boards. Pfeiffer (US 2,778,560) is cited for teaching handle openings in walls of folding boxes.
